As For Me

But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD –Josh 24:15. These words were spoken by Joshua, the great leader of Israel, after many years of service in the Lord's army.
Joshua had suffered the hardships of Egypt, had marched out of Egypt under the delivering hand of God, and had been with Moses through forty years of wandering the in wilderness.
Now, Joshua had brought the children of Israel on their journey across the Jordan River into Canaan and had appointed them their inheritance. He then charged them with the responsibility of making the choice of serving either the true God or turning to idol gods. His decision to serve God was a personal decision, it was a public decision and it was a permanent decision. His decision was forever!
